

HEAVY LOSSES OF THE CARTEL PARTIES IN THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

A Possibility That the Government May Not Secure a Majority in the Reichstag—Great Socialists Gains in Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—The results of the election so far as now known account for 234 seats in the Reichstag. As the Reichstag has 397 members, this leaves 163 seats to be accounted for. Of the 234 election failed in 92 districts, making supplementary elections necessary in these places.

The 142 members elected are divided between the following parties: German Conservatives, 22; Imperialists, 10; National Liberals, 9; Centre, 52; German Liberals, 11; Socialists, 20; Poles, 3; Anabaptists, 10; Democrats, 3; Danes, 1; Independent Liberals, 1.

The 92 districts in which there were no elections will be contested by Conservatives, 11; Imperialists, 13; National Liberals, 3; Centre, 14; German Liberals, 36; Socialists, 40; Catholics, 2; Poles, 4; Democrats, 9.

Compared with the last preceding election, the Socialists vote in Berlin shows an increase of 83,000, and the Liberal vote an increase of 8,000. The Conservative vote decreased 36,000. Two Socialists have been elected in this city. In the districts second vote will be necessary. The Socialists carried Magdeburg, Leipzig, Hamburg, the Dresden district, the Altona district, Chemnitz, and Zwickau.

Baron Bulach, a National Liberal, defeated Herr Sieffmann, a Protestant, at Moishausen. Herr Sieffmann, a Protestant, defeated Herr Sieffmann, a Protestant, at Moishausen. Herr Sieffmann, a Protestant, defeated Herr Sieffmann, a Protestant, at Moishausen.

The National Zeitung estimates from the returns thus far received that the cartel parties have already lost eighteen seats. The paper says that owing to these losses of the cartel parties the Government will be unable to secure a majority in the Reichstag.

The Freemason Zeitung reckons that the cartel combination has lost twenty-seven seats. Conditions are not so bright as they were.

ATONIA, Feb. 21.—Cavalry with drawn sabres and infantry with fixed bayonets were posted on the Hamburg frontier to prevent the meetings of the Socialists. The Socialists constantly jeered the soldiers, who finally charged them, severely wounding eight civilians.

There was also an exciting collision at Cottbus in Brandenburg, between soldiers and civilians, which resulted in bloodshed.

PROKIER GREEN AND MRS. MACRAE.

Shocked by the Exposure of Their Flight, but Determined to Live Together.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Mr. Douglas Green and Mrs. Snell-Macrae are living in private lodgings here. They both look careworn and pale. Mr. Green said today:

"The poor, dear girl is quite prostrated by to-day's cablegrams from New York. The exposure is horrible."

"But inevitable," suggested the reporter.

"Perhaps so, but none the less unpleasant," replied Mr. Green.

"I have called to my lawyer," he continued, "to watch the case. We have burned our boats now, and must make the best of the situation. We have loved each other for years, and now nothing shall part us. We realize our position thoroughly, but the world is wide, and love will find a corner in which to dwell in peace."

"But," asked the reporter, "shall you ever go back to America?"

"Perhaps; and if we should we shall remember our enemies and our false friends both."

"How did you come to let people know of your intended flight?"

"I cannot imagine," answered Mr. Green. "I thought I had taken every precaution and secured our travels, and now we are here. I have gained the woman I love and am content."

GEN. WOLSELEY CRITICISED.

Accused of Inflicting on Military Regulations in His Magazine Articles.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—In the House of Commons, the Right Hon. Henry Matthews, Secretary of State for the Home Department, replying to Mr. Labouchere, stated that Mr. Labouchere and his colleagues, who testified before the Parnell Commission, had not received any payment from the Government since he had appeared as a witness on that occasion.

The Right Hon. Edward Stanhope, Secretary of State for War, in answer to the question whether a recent article in the English army, written by Gen. Wolseley and printed in Harper's Magazine, was not an infraction of the regulations, said that the article was not a violation of the regulations.

Nevertheless the Government considered that members of the general staff were bound to abstain from discussing matters having relation to that department, and had had some correspondence with Gen. Wolseley on this subject. The Government was satisfied that Gen. Wolseley had no intention to infringe the army regulations, and that such a thing would not happen again.

Mr. Labouchere demanded an explicit assurance that a list of the witnesses summoned to appear before the Parnell Commission should be furnished before a vote was called for on the subject.

The Right Hon. W. H. Smith said he could not give assurance that Government would not publish any information that might be of the expense of witnesses.

Mr. Stanhope's amendment for the formation of a committee to inquire into the expenses of the Parnell Commission was defeated upon a vote of 153 to 143.

Mr. W. H. Smith announced that the debate on the subject of the Parnell Commission was fixed for March 3.

THE CLUB NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARLIAMENT'S Loyal Address to the Queen.

MONTEAL, Feb. 21.—The Club National, the leading French Canadian political club of Canada, held a meeting here to-night to discuss Canada's future. The members were almost unanimous in declaring for Canadian independence.

Finally adopted a series of resolutions disavowing the recent address to the Queen, passed by the House of Commons at Ottawa, setting forth that it was the desire of the Canadian people to perpetuate the political bond which at present exists between Canada and England.

The Club National declares that the address was inopportune, as it could have no other result than to alienate the sympathy of the United States at a time when public opinion demands the establishment of closer commercial relations between the two countries.

And that while Canadians profess sincere admiration for the English constitutional government, they desire with all their heart the establishment of an independent nationality in the vast domains of British North America, free from all European attachments.

The action of the Club National is very significant, as the club is backed by Premier Mercier, the head of the Quebec Government.
